

COMMUNITY NEWS

Juneja-Chana Benefit For Nelson Mandela Children's Fund

Gurpreet 'The Tabla Guy' Chana and Raoul 'Deejay Ra' Juneja celebrate at the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund Canada and CapAids charities' sold-out "Hip-Hop For Africa" benefit hosted by CBC's George Strombo, recently held February 3rd at the Rivoli Lounge in Downtown Toronto.

"In addition to Tehran rapper Imaan Faith, look out at our event for a South Asian tabla artist known as Gurpreet 'The Tabla Guy' Chana, who was last featured on the 'Folklore' album released by Grammy-award winning musician Nelly Furtado," explained Juneja on Newstalk CFRB 1010 AM the week prior.

"Besides featuring the debut live reading of my 'Hip-Hop Literacy' campaign and the live premiere of Imaan's 'Aids Awareness' rap song, thanks to Gurpreet our benefit is also the first rap event to feature a tabla performance in hip-hop history!" □