

Pac's Life packs a punch

British-Iranian filmmaker Gobi produced the Oscar nominated documentary, Tupac Resurrection

Besides directing Tupac's legendary video, 2 of America's Most Wanted featuring Snoop Dogg, Gobi has also acted as a photographer for Tupac on numerous occasions.

A collection of his photographs were recently published by Simon & Schuster entitled Thru My Eyes, which featured a foreword by Tupac's mother Afeni Shakur.

He was in town recently, for the release of Pac's Life music video featuring rap star T.I. and singer/actress/author Ashanti.

The single is from the new album of the best-selling rap musician of all time Tupac Amaru Shakur, a close friend and production partner of Gobi's until Tupac's passing in September 1996.

No stranger to Toronto and multiculturalism, Gobi recently shot a music video for rap artist Imaan Faith and participated in the hip-hop literacy campaign founded by Raoul Juneja.
